Natural gas markets have a significant effect on the economy and on the individuals who rely on the fuel for electric generation, manufacturing, heating, cooking, and other purposes. There is a physical market in which natural gas is produced, transported, stored, and consumed. There is also a financial market in which physical natural gas is

SANIA Power AG has built a successful business on trading energy commodities in the last seven years. The Company's power and natural gas trading activities cover time-delimited markets from forward to day-ahead and intraday. SANIA Power is a Central European Gas Hub member. The Company challenges market inefficiencies with international trade, moving energy from where

Our parent company, SANIA Power AG, is a more than eight-year-old, Switzerland-based, rapidly growing energy commodity wholesale and trading business with in-depth specialisation in the European energy markets. SANIA Power delivers strong results thanks to our dedicated employees and a keen focus on value creation. The Company keeps a strict focus on its strategy. We detect market inefficiencies in time and move energy from where there is more than needed to where it is needed most. SANIA Power concentrates on its core expertise

SANIA Power is exposed to a variety of risks through its daily trading activities. The risk strategy supports SANIA Power's strategic objectives by appropriately balancing risk and expected returns. This balance is enforced through capital allocation. The definition and allocation of capital ensure a clear alignment of the Company's risk appetite with the mandates allocated
