The BiSON node located at Iza on the island of Tenerife, at the Instituto de Astrofísica de Canarias (IAC) (Roca Cortés & Pallés, 2014), suffers additional complications in ...

The World's Most Powerful Low-Light Energy Harvesting Indoor Solar Cells The proliferation of connected devices promises to revolutionize consumer, commercial and industrial applications with greater convenience, lower operational costs and data-driven performance improvements. Already consumers have fallen in love with smart home advances, while many businesses ...

Ambient has developed a set of tools to help our customers go from PV cell to total product integration. One of those tools are our Application Development Kit (ADK). The ADK is a tool for validating the performance of Ambient's PV cells. It measures the irradiance of a given location and the performance of the energy harvesting solution.

PVIA-10.6-1-TO39-NW-36 is a room-temperature IR photovoltaic detector based on InAs/InAsSb superlattice heterostructure. It enables the detection of radiation in the range from 1.8 μm to 12 μm . The detector element is monolithically integrated with hemispherical GaAs microlens in order to improve the performance of the device. The detector is mounted in the ...
